MISSING IN ACTION!

OK, Classmates, it's 2012. Time to get our act together for our 50th Reunion. Job #1? Let's make sure everyone in our class knows about it. Right? Right!

MISSING

EDDY FYFFE
Last seen heading into the Hawaiian sunset... We miss you Eddy and hope that you come to your 50th reunion. We just Googled you and see that your law office phone number is 808-295-1462. We just bet you'd love to hear from your WFB classmates...

WHETHER OR NOT each and every classmate decides to come – or is able to come, that's up to them (Carol Cummings says she's going to be stuck in Canberra. We're hoping she'll change her mind – heck, it's only halfway around the world.) But whether everyone can come or not, it's still up to us to make sure that ALL OF OUR CLASSMATES know about it. Right, Eddy?

So this issue of our newsletter is dedicated to tracking down, looking up, and filling in the blanks on our missing WFB62 classmates.

Let's do this!

Hey, it might be fun!

FROM THE EDITOR

This came in a holiday newsletter from a friend who'd been to her 50th. Wonder what we'll see...
"After over a year of planning, prodding and talking about it, I attended my 50th high school reunion. We had a record crowd.

A few classmates came in wheelchairs, one on a scooter but most were pretty mobile. Though fifty years does take a toll on the recognition factor.

When one man threw his arms around me, I had to chat several minutes before I realized it was my first boyfriend with whom I'd spent many a night lip-locked in dark parking lots. You'd have thought that I'd remember that particular face!"

Better get the name tags ready.

*I have a dream.
Someday... someday...
We'll all be reunited – surrounded by Harleys.*

Then Pete started his own business selling aftermarket Harley-Davidson parts. He sold the business and retired in 1989.*

Hey, talk about being ready for our 50th Reunion at the Harley-Davidson Center, we've got our own Leader of the Pack!

Fred Newell Remembers...

"Still playing, but, with a few more strokes. • My best round was a 71 which included five birdies and an eagle. • I always was a better match player than a stroke player. • I was fortunate to be able to play in the first Pro/Am at the new North Shore C.C. Paired with Charlie Sifford. • Other notable courses included Chaska, Tam O Shanter (IL), Saucon Valley (PA)."

Julie Taxman Stracks...

Yes, I've run a lot of golf outings, tournaments... I think we want a friendly group outing. It would be good to have things like a long drive contest, closest to the pin, etc. w. small prizes. Let me know how I can help. How can it be 50 years?? Julie
